Auf ein Wort...

Bereits zum zweiten Mal fand der GIP (German International DVF-Photocup) statt. Ein internationaler Fotowettbewerb der sich weltweit immer größerer Beliebtheit erfreut, was durch die Teilnehmerzahlen (1468) und eingereichte Werke (8912) sehr deutlich wird. Der GIP mit seinen beiden Sparten (Offen und Natur) hat sich unter anderem auch dadurch etabliert, dass die Bekanntgabe der Ergebnisse sehr kurzfristig nach der Jurierung erfolgt. Auch die zahlreichen Patronate sprechen für einen gewissen Qualitätsstand und „Punktejäger“ können sich im Erfolgsfall gleich mehrfach freuen.

Die Durchführung eines Circuits in dieser Größenordnung bedarf einer äußerst guten Organisation und Planung die vom Veranstalter sehr diszipliniert umgesetzt wurde.

Als Juror möchte ich hier stellvertretend für alle Beteiligten meinen Dank für die optimale Organisation und Durchführung dieses Wettbewerbes aussprechen, die der Veranstalter nicht zuletzt auch durch sein persönliches Engagement erneut unter Beweis gestellt hat.

Mein spezieller Dank gilt natürlich auch allen Autoren, die uns erst durch die Teilnahme mit ihren Werken diesen Wettbewerb ermöglicht haben.

Neben der Organisation sehe ich als Juror auch eine der Hauptaufgaben in der Auswahl der Bilder. In drei Teams wurde zwei Tage lang hochkonzentriert gearbeitet und schließlich die Preisträger des Wettbewerbes ermittelt. In mehreren Auswahlrunden wurden zunächst die Annahmen festgelegt bevor in den finalen Diskussionsrunden die Auszeichnungen vergeben werden konnten. Werke die als „eye-catcher“ direkt ins Auge stachen oder neue kreative Sichtweisen zeigten hatten gute Chancen auf einen der vorderen Plätze. Bekannte sowie abgewandelte oder ähnliche Motive wurden direkt in der ersten Runde aussortiert. Bilder die formale Fehler aufwiesen ebenfalls. Schade war auch, dass viele Autoren ihre Bilder kleiner als erlaubt eingesendet hatten. Dadurch wird die Chance auf eine optimale Präsentation vergeben.

Wenn sie liebe Autorinnen und Autoren zu den glücklichen Gewinnern gehören, dann genießen sie den Augenblick und freuen sich über ihren Erfolg. Sollten sie zu denjenigen gehören, die es nicht so weit nach vorne geschafft haben, dann fehlte ihnen vielleicht nur das bisschen Glück, was letztendlich auch irgendwo dazugehört. Auch eine Annahme sollten sie bereits als Auszeichnung sehen denn das ist bei der Vielzahl der teilgenommenen Werke keine Selbstverständlichkeit. Herzlichen Glückwunsch somit allen erfolgreichen Teilnehmern.

Bernd Mai, Jurymitglied Salon Niedersachsen

On My Mind...

The German International DVF-Photocup has taken place now for the second time already. This is an international competition that is beoming more and more popular, as can be seen by looking at the number of participants (1468) and the number of images entered (8912). The GIP with its two sections, open and nature, has made itself a name through the publication of the results so soon after the judgings. Another indication of the quality of the circuit is the number of patronages and all "award-hunters" will find themselves variously rewarded.

The success of a circuit of this magnitude requires good organisation and planning, which were both displayed by the organiser. As a judge I would like to speak in the name of all involved in thanking the organiser for the best possible organisation, which was to be seen once again in his personal commitment. I would also of course like to give a special thank you to the participants who through their participation made the circuit possible.

Alongside the organisation I see one of my main functions as a judge in the selection of acceptances. In three teams the judges worked hard and concentratedly for two days and in the end the prizewinners were chosen. In a number of viewings the acceptances were decided before the winners were chosen in the final discussion rounds. Eye-catching images and new creative ways of looking at the world had good chances of being among the leading images. Well-known images and variations and similar images were eliminated in the first round, as were images with formal flaws. It was a pity that some entrants submitted images smaller than allowed, which did not help the image presentation.

If you are among the happy winners please do enjoy your success but should you be among the entrants who did not make it to the front perhaps you just did not have that bit of luck which is part of winning. You should however see an acceptance as an achievement in itself with this huge number of entries.

Congratulation to all successful entrants!

Für die ersten Drei jeder Runde gibt es je einen Sachpreis. Und am Ende des Jahres winken der Siegerin/dem Sieger unsere Trophy (ein d-pixx-X auf poliertem Edelstahl) und ein Sachpreis im Wert von rund 2500 Euro. Der 2. und 3. Platz sind ebenfalls mit tollen Preisen verbunden.

Die Teilnahmebedingungen stehen in der jeweils aktuellen d-pixx. Zu finden in den Zeitschriftenregalen, oder direkt zu bestellen auf www.d-pixx.de (innerhalb Deutschlands versandkostenfrei).

d-pixx gibt es alle acht Wochen für 3,30 Euro im Zeitschriftenregal oder direkt in den Briefkasten.

Und damit die Pause zwischen den Heften nicht zu lang wird, gibt es www.d-pixx.de mit den topaktuellen News, Praxistests, vielen Originalbildern aus den neuesten Kameras und der d-pixxOnlinePhotoChallenge. Reinschauen lohnt sich!
