Auf ein Wort

In den letzten Jahren ist die Zahl der internationalen Fotosalons enorm gewachsen und die Wahl für Fotografen wo sie ihre Bilder einreichen können ist größer als je zuvor. Es ist ein Zeichen dafür, wie gut der German International DVF-Photocup von Norbert und Karin Heil geführt wird, dass wiederum eine so große Zahl von Fotografen, ihre Bilder eingereicht haben. Als Mitglied einer der Jurys, die sich jeweils aus Juroren aus Deutschland und Großbritannien zusammengesetzt haben, war es eine Freude, die Ansichten der erfahrenen Juroren mit verschiedenen photographischen Hintergründen zu erfahren. Dies ermöglichte es, dass eine breite Palette von Stilen und Ansätzen sich in der endgültigen Wahl der Annahmen widerspiegelt. Einige werden mit unseren Entscheidungen begeistert und andere enttäuscht sein, aber das ist immer in internationalen Salons der Fall. Es war erfreulich, dass ein sehr hoher Standard aus allen Teilen der Welt eingereicht wurde, und viele waren sowohl gestalterisch als auch technisch gut gemacht. Ja, wir haben auch einige Bilder als "alte Bekannte" wiedergesehen, die in anderen Salons ihre Runden seit einigen Jahren drehen, aber das waren nur wenige unter einer großen Anzahl von neuen und erfrischenden Bildern. Mein persönlicher Dank gilt meinen Mitjuroren, die es zu einer angenehmen Aufgabe gemacht haben über 8000 Bilder anzuschauen, aber vor allem Norbert und Karin für die Einladung als Juror tätig zu sein und ohne die es nicht stattgefunden hätte .

Tony Potter, APSA, GMPSA, EFIAP/g, ARPS, APAGB, DPAGB.

On my mind

Over the last few years the number of International Photographic Salons has grown enormously and the choice photographers have into which salons they will enter their pictures is greater than ever. It is a mark of how well the German International DVF-Photocup is run by Norbert and Karin Heil that it should have received such a large number of photographers wishing to enter. As a member of one of the judging panels, each made up of judges from both Germany and the UK, it was a pleasure to share in the views of experienced judges from different backgrounds. This enabled a wide range of styles and approaches to be reflected in the final choice of acceptances. Some will be delighted with our choices and others disappointed, but this is always the case in international salons. It was rewarding to see such a high standard of work being produced from across the world, and many both pictorially and technically well done. Yes we did get some pictures that we almost knew as "old friends" that had done the salon rounds for some years but these were few among a large number of new and refreshing pictures.

My personal thanks to my fellow judges who made it an enjoyable task looking at the over 8000 pictures, but again most of all Norbert and Karin for the invitation to judge and without whom it would not have taken place.

Tony Potter, APSA, GMPSA, EFIAP/g, ARPS, APAGB, DPAGB.
